FINAL JUDGMENT AS TO DEFENDANT JOSEPH T. LETKE

This cause comes before the Court upon Plaintiff United States Securities and Exchange Commission's ("SEC") Application for Final Judgment by Default as to Defendant Joseph T. Letke. The Court has considered this application, the memorandum of law, declarations, and exhibits filed in support of the application, and having been fully advised in the premises, finds:

1. That this Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case and there is good cause to believe it will have jurisdiction over all parties hereto;
2. That Defendant Letke was served with the Complaint and Summons when the SEC delivered the Complaint and Summons to an agent authorized by appointment to accept service on Letke's behalf., in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 4;
3. That Defendant Letke failed to answer or otherwise respond to the Complaint;
4. That the Court properly entered default against Defendant Letke, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a), on October 21, 2014;

5. That entry of a Final Judgment against Defendant Letke is appropriate under Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b)(2);

6. That the injunctive relief and monetary relief Plaintiff seeks against Defendant is adequately supported in fact and law by the evidence and methodology set forth in the application, Plaintiff's memorandum in support of the application, the declaration of SEC Accountant Scott Hlavacek and the exhibits attached thereto, and the Declaration of SEC Attorney Eric Phillips;
